

Contents

FOREWORD	9
INTRODUCTION	13
The Purpose of Marriage	13
Islamic Upbringing: An Important Responsibility	16
Children: A Source of Mercy for the Parents	17
BIRTH CONTROL IN ISLAMIC LAW	21
Irreversible Contraception	21
Male Sterilization (Vasectomy)	21
Female Sterilization (Tubal Ligation or Tubectomy)	22
Islamic Viewpoint on Irreversible Contraception	22
Sterilization in Dire Situations	24
Reversible Contraception	25
Coitus Interruptus (ʿazl)	25
The Rhythm Method	26
Intra-Uterine Devices (IUD)	26
Condoms	26
Diaphragms and Caps	27
Oral Contraceptive Pills	27
Injections	27
Locally Acting Spermicidal Jellies	27
Islamic Viewpoint on Reversible Contraception	27
The Ḥanafī School	33
The Mālikī School	35
The Shāfiʿī School	35
The Ḥanbalī School	37
Conclusion from the Four Schools	38
Practicing Contraception for Fear of Poverty	38

BIRTH CONTROL & ABORTION IN ISLAM

Contraception out of Shame of Conceiving a Girl	39
The Fashion of Having Small Families	40
Population Control	40
Two Forms of Reversible Contraception	41
The Loop	41
Emergency Contraception (The Morning-After Pill)	43
The Mālikī Position on the Pill and Other Medicinal Methods	44
Birth Control Patches	45
Selling Contraceptives	46
Disadvantages and Harms of Contraception	46
ABORTION	49
Life is Sacred	50
The Islamic Ruling on Abortion	51
When Does the Soul Enter the Fetus?	52
Ruling on Abortion after 120 Days (Four Months)	53
The Ḥanafī School	54
The Mālikī School	54
The Shāfiʿī School	54
The Ḥanbalī School	55
The Situation of Necessity	55
Ruling on Abortion Before 120 Days (Four Months)	57
The Ḥanafī School	57
The Mālikī School	58
The Shāfiʿī School	58
The Ḥanbalī School	59
Conclusion from the Four Schools	59
Abortion in Cases of Need (Prior to 120 Days)	61
Those that Affect the Mother	62
Those that Affect the Unborn Child	62
Abortion and Adultery	63
Abortion and Rape	66
The Role of Doctors and Medical Practitioners	67
Conclusion	68
BIBLIOGRAPHY	71
INDEX	75